Whose Say-so is Best?

Whose Say-so is Best?

With nearly all med'cines put up for eale through druggists, one has to take the maker's say-so alone as to their curative value. Of course, such testimony is not that of a disinterested party and accordingly is not to be given the same credit as if written from disinterested motives. Dr. Pierce's medicines, however, form a single and therefore striking exception to this rule. Their claims to the confidence of invalids does not rest solely about their makers' say-so or praise. Their ingredients are matters of public knowledge, being printed on each separate bottle wrapper. Thus invalid confidence. Scores of leading mexical men have written enough to fill volumes in praise of the curative value of the several ingredients entering into these well-known medicines.

Amountst these writters we find such medical lights as Prof Finley Ellimgwood, M. D.

Dr. Perree's Favorite Prescription cures the worst cases of female weakeness, prolapsus, anteversion and retroversion and corrects irregularities, cures painful periods, dries up disagreeable and weakening drains, sometimes known as pelvic catarrh and a multitude of other diseases peculiar to women. Bear in mind, it is not a patent nor even a secret medicine, but the "Favorite Prescription" of a regularly oducated physician, of large experience in the cure of woman's peculiar allments, who frankly and confidence by telling them just what his "Prescription" is compassed of. Of no other medicine put up for woman's special maladles and sold through drangists, can it be said that the maker is not afraid to deal thus frankly, openly and honorably, by letting every natient using the same know exactly what she is taking.

Sick women are invited to consult Dr. Pierce, by letter, Drec. All correspondence is gnarded as sacredly secret and womanly confidences are protected by professional privacy. Address Dr. R. V. Pierce, Buffalo, N. Y.

If you see a woman or a man with lux uriant glossy hair, you may be sure nei-ther has dandruff to amount to anything In nearly every case where women and men have thin brittle hair, they owe it to dandruff. There are hundreds of preparations that "claim" to cure dandruff, but not one but Newbro's Herpicide tells you that dandruff is the result of a germ burrowing into the scalp, and that per-manent cure of dandruff and its consemanent cure of dandruff and its consequent falling and baldness, can only be had by killing the germ; and there is no other preparation that will destroy that germ but Newbro's Herpicide. [Entered at the Postoffice of Alexandria, Virginia, as second-class matter.]

Al-xander Berkman, who last summer was released from New York state's prison after having served 14 years for an attack on Henry C. Frick, following the Homestead (Pa.) riots of 1892; Emma Goldman and two others, were arrested in New York yesterday by detectives, who broke up an anarchist meeting on the East Side. Emma Goldman made the speech which moved the police sucience to disobey the command to northwest country:

The other prisoners are John R. Cor yell, who presided at the meeting, and zero. Israel L. Schwartz, a youth of 16 years, who refused to leave the hall when it was cleared.

Emma Goldman is specifically charged with a violation of that section of the pensi code which makes it a felony to give utterance from a public platform to incendiary speeches. Berkman and Coryell are held as accessories. They were ocked up, and will be arranged today, tion is relieved been called for the purpose of forming a club. Emma Goldman was introduced as the first speaker, but had not proceed-ed far when she was interrupted by the police, according to whom she said, among other things, in English:

"It is ridiculous to think that society cannot get along without government. We will say to the government: "Give us what belongs to us in peace, and if you don't give it to us in peace, we will take it by force.' As long as I live and am able to explain myself, I will be op-posed to government; and as I live and as my brain dictates, will use force against the government."

As the detectives moved toward the stage there was a stampede for the exits, which Berkman tried to stop, counseling the audience, it is alleged, to refuse to obey the police order to disperse. Asked at police headquarters to define "anarchy," as he understood the term, Berkman said: "I bel'eve, as an anarchist, in government without force. The foundation of the present and all government is force. I believe society is perfectly capable of

With the finding of the bomb thrower's valise in the obscure hotel, where he registered in Philadelphia, and the 'examination of the contents of the satchel, the police have radically changed their theories accounting for the explosion in the Fourth Street National Bank in that death of the assassin himself, and the bank cashier, and in the injury of twenty others. The man who threw the bomb or dropped it proves to be Rollo Steele, who lived for years Garner, Iows, and afterward in Chicago. But the mat-ter of seosational importance is the discovery that in his value he carried elecric and slow fuses, of the sort often used by burglars.

It is now known that Steele and most likely his "pal," went to Philadelphia directly from Lynchburg, Va., on Thursday. It is the supposition that they went to Philadelphia to raise money and to get it out of the banks by threats to blow them up with a bomb. The threat to cast the bomb was Steele's part of it, and the standing guard outside to get away with the money was the "pal's."

The police of Lynchburg are reported to have discovered a nest of anarchists in that city, but no details will be given out until sctual arrests have been made. Although the officers have not connected Steele, the man who wrecked the Philadelphia bank Saturday, with the anarchists in Lynchburg, it is interesting to note that Steele had just left there An Umbrella, a Silver Clothes Brush, a pretty Fob, the bomb which he used with deadly effect. Steele was a native of Garner,

Devoured by Wolves,

With the appearance of snow in Rou mania wolves, those grim terrors of unknown western Europe, every year in hard weather claim their victims. Their first victims in the present year were a parish priest and his man servant, who went a few days ago on a sledge from the village of Ludesti to Tergovesti. For days the snow had laid thick on the ground. On their return journey they were overtaken by the dusk in a forest near Ludesti by a pack of wolves, who attacked them. The terrified horses overturned the sledge and broke the traces, leaving the men and sledge behind, and not stopping till they reached the first village on the outskirts of the forest. A searching party followed the tracks of the horses, and at last found pawmarks in the snow spinshes of blood and tatters of what had once been clothing, which told with borrible vividness what had happened.

A watchman's neglect permitted a leak in the great North Sea dyke, which a child's finger could have stopped, to become a ruinous break, devastating an entire province of Holland. In like manner Kenneth McIyer, of Vanceboro, Me., permitted a little cold to go unnoticed until a large tragic finish was only averted by Dr. King's New Discovery.
